

RESOLUTION

“We, the women legislators, who have assembled at the National Conference of Women Legislators on the theme Women Legislators : Building Resurgent India, held in New Delhi on 5th and 6th March 2016, recalling with profound gratitude the stellar contributions of the founding father of our Constitution to building a strong, united, egalitarian and democratic republic, recognizing the vital role of the legislators especially women legislators in strengthening the process of governance towards building a resurgent India, emphasizing that India has made a notable progress in social and economic development, and that we have to ensure that the pattern of development remains equitable within and between the states and all sections, acknowledging the imperative to facilitate equal access of education, healthcare, access to safe drinking water and basic sanitation facilities, promote social and financial inclusion, and promote women’s greater participation in work force, do hereby resolve to work for transparent, accountable and inclusive governance and to contribute for the task of building a resurgent India, strive for social and financial inclusion with a view to ensuring equal opportunities to all, inform, communicate and educate citizens about the developmental programmes, proactively monitor implementation of schemes, effective utilization of allocations and efficient service delivery mechanisms, work to ensure accessible, inclusive and quality education with focus on outcomes, undertake to strengthen accessible, affordable and equitable public healthcare infrastructure with effective delivery at its core, emphasis the need for greater synergy between the people and the administrative, law enforcement agencies to ensure their welfare, safety and security especially safety and security of women and the girl child, promote grassroots entrepreneurship and improve the skill levels of the workforce, engage with elected women representative at municipal and panchayat levels regularly as bridges of constructive dialogue between and among the people, the State and the Union, promote increased role of women in financial decision making and fostering financial literacy among the masses, proactively engage in the formulation, implementation and monitoring of sustainable development schemes and in particular in meeting specific targets, engender all legislative and developmental plans for integrating gender concerns into the processes and procedures, contribute to better legislation and policy making through study and research and to coordinate with the administration at all levels for their effective implementation, and engage with young people who are harbingers of change and innovation, encourage women to be a part of the developmental processes and procedures, motivate communities and citizens to engage with governance issues, and to ensure follow up action towards inclusive and citizen centric governance unitedly and building a truly empowered and resurgent nation”.